

HARBORSIDE SURGERY CENTER NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICE

Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA)

Effective April 14, 2003

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

The Surgery Center is required by law to maintain the privacy of your health information and to provide you with notice of its legal duties and privacy practices with respect to your health information. If you have questions about any part of this notice or if you want more information about the privacy practices at the Surgery Center please see the contact information at the end of this document.

1. HOW the Surgery Center MAY USE OR DISCLOSE YOUR HEALTH INFORMATION.

The Surgery Center collects and protects the privacy of your health information. The law permits the Surgery Center to use or disclose your health information for the following purposes:

- 1. Treatment: The Surgery Center may use your health information to provide you with medical treatment or services. For example, information obtained from you by a front office personnel or nurse is necessary to determine what treatment you should receive.
- 2. Payment: The Surgery Center may use and disclose your health information to others for purposes of receiving payments for treatment and services that you receive. For example, your health information may be sent to a third party payer such as an insurance company or health plan in order for the Surgery Center to receive payment for services rendered.
- 3. Health Care Operations: The Surgery Center may use and disclose health information about you for operational purposes. For example, your health information may be disclosed to members of the medical staff, risk or quality improvement personnel, and others to: evaluate the performance of our staff; assess the quality of care and outcomes in your cases and similar cases; and to determine how to continually improve the quality and effectiveness of healthcare we provide.
- 4. Information provided to you: You may give us written authorization to use or disclose your health information.
- 5. Notification and Communications with family: We may disclose your health information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care about your location, your general condition or in the event of your death. If you are able and available to agree or object, we will give you the opportunity to object prior to making this notification. If you are unable or unavailable to agree or object, our health professionals will use their best judgment in communication with your family and others.
- 6. Required by Law: As required by law, we may use and disclose your health information. For example, the Surgery Center may disclose health information for the following reasons; judicial and administrative proceedings; to a law enforcement official for purposes such as identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person, complying with a court order or subpoena and other law enforcement purposes; to the department of health and human services to determine if we are in compliance with federal laws; or to appropriate person in order to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a particular person or the general public.
- 7. Public Health: As required by law, we may disclose your health information to public health authorities for purposes related to: preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability; reporting child abuse or neglect; reporting domestic violence; reporting to the Food and Drug Administration problems with products and reactions to medications; to aid with disaster relief; and reporting disease or infection exposure.
- 8. Health Oversight Activities: We may disclose your health information to health agencies during the course of audits, investigations, inspections, licensure and other proceedings.
- 9. Deceased Person Information and Organ Donation: We may disclose your health information to coroners, medical examiners, funeral directors, or to organizations involved in procuring, banking or transplanting organs and tissues.
- 10. Research: We may disclose your health information to researchers conducting research that has been approved by an institutional review board.
- 11. Workers Compensation: We may disclose your health information as necessary to comply with worker's compensation laws.

- 12. Marketing: We may contact you to give you information about treatments or health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.
- 13. Government Functions: Specialized government functions such as protection of public officials or reporting to various branches of the armed services may require use or disclosure of your health information.
- 14. Appointments: The Surgery Center may use your information to provide appointment reminders by phone, email, or postal services.
- 15. Business Associates: We work with other businesses to help the Surgery Center operate successfully. We may disclose your health information to these business associates so that they can perform the tasks we hired them to do. Our business associates must guarantee us that they will respect the confidentiality of your personal health information.

II. When the Surgery Center may not use or disclose your health information:

III. Your Health Information Rights:

- 1. You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your health information. The Surgery Center is not required to agree to the restriction that you requested.
- 2. You have the right to receive your health information through a reasonable alternative means or at an alternative location. Requests must be made in writing detailing the alternative methods chose and could have applicable fees.
- 3. You have the right to inspect and/or obtain a copy of your health information for a reasonable fee.
- 4. You have a right to request that the Surgery Center amend your health information that is incorrect or incomplete. The Surgery Center is not required to change your health information and will provide you with information about the denial process.
- 5. You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your health information made by the surgery center, except that the Surgery Center does not have to account for the disclosures described in the treatment, payment, health care operations, and government functions of section 1 of this notice. The first accounting of disclosures within a twelve-month period is free. Any additional accountings in that time frame are subject to a fee.
- 6. You have the right to revoke your authorization to use or disclose health information except to the extent that action has already been taken.
- 7. You have a right to obtain a paper copy of this Notice upon request.

IV. Changes to the notice of privacy practices. The Surgery Center reserves the right to amend this notice of Privacy practices at any time in the future. Until such amendment is made, the Surgery Center is required by law to comply with this notice. A paper copy of this Notice is available if you request a copy.

V. Complaints: If you believe your privacy rights have been violated or if you have complaints about this Privacy Notice contact:

Administrator: Sandra Gateau, Harborside Surgery Center, 125 Potomac Passage Suite 200, National Harbor, MD 20745 Phone: 240-493-6110

If you are not satisfied with the manner in which the Surgery Center handles a complaint, you may submit a formal written complaint to the Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights. You will not be retaliated against for filing a complaint.